What are some options?

Financial advice and support

All of the organisations on this leaflet will discuss your options and help you make the decisions that are right for you. They can also help with form filling and will refer you to other support services, including those who help with problems around gas/electric, such as Dundee Energy Efficiency Advice Project.

1

Scottish Welfare Fund – Crisis Grant

People on low incomes may be able to get a grant from the Scottish Welfare Fund in the event of a crisis. This is a one-off payment to help you cope during an emergency or disaster, or due to unexpected expenses. Crisis grants may be given as cash or as vouchers, e.g to buy food or fuel. You may be required to request a hardship payment or benefit advance before being awarded this grant. Crisis grants do not have to be paid back (not a loan).

2

Hardship Payment

If you have no money because of a sanction, you may be able to claim a hardship payment from the Jobcentre. Hardship payments are not always paid immediately, and they're not available to everyone. Hardship payments of Universal Credit need to be paid back, but hardship payments of JSA or ESA do not.

3

Benefit Advance

If someone has made a new claim for benefit but has not yet been paid, they may be able to get an advance. Advances are typically paid within 3 working days but you can ask for it to be paid the same day you apply. Benefit advances must be paid back, and the money will be taken from your future benefit payments (a loan). It's important to get advice from one of the services before taking out an advance.

4

Challenging a decision

You can challenge a benefit decision if your benefit has been stopped/sanctioned/reduced and you believe the decision is wrong. Most benefit decisions need to be challenged within one month.

5

Benefit check

Some people may need support to make a claim and may not be getting all of the benefits they are entitled to. A benefit check can ensure that they are receiving their maximum entitlement.
